Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .under our protection from visiting any particular port on account of their origin, and also to prohibit them from possessing many dhows. According to what we saw this year, our old protected subjects have taken flags for their new dhows, and the case is not, as you think, that they have increased (in number). And also, what would be against custom, is that there should be obstacles in their journeys (voyages) and their mercantile transactions. As to the injury which you mention, if it were (real) injury, how is it that others than yourself have not complained of it, and how is it that you yourself did not mention it during all this long period until now? As you hope for the friendship of our Government to you, it will, God willing, remain permanent, and many salaams to you. No. 3. Purport of Letter from the...
