

In a Village Far from Home: My Years Among the Cora Indians of the Sierra Madre

By Catherine Palmer Finerty

University of Arizona Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, In a Village Far from Home: My Years Among the Cora Indians of the Sierra Madre, Catherine Palmer Finerty, What do most career women do after a successful run on Madison Avenue? Catherine Finerty watched her friends settle into the country-club life. She opted instead for Mexico. When the 60-year-old widow loaded up her car and headed south, what she found at the end of the road was far from what she expected. Finerty settled into a comfortable house just outside of Guadalajara and, although not a Catholic, she soon immersed herself in Franciscan volunteer work. It wasn't long before she found herself visiting small settlements hidden in the tropical mountains of western Mexico, and it was in Jesus Maria so isolated that one could only get there by mule or small plane that she found her new calling: the village nurse. With its bugs and heat, no phones or running water, the tiny town was hardly a place to enjoy one's retirement years, but Finerty was quickly charmed by the community of Cora Indians and mestizos. Armed with modest supplies, a couple of textbooks, and common sense, she found...
