Excerpt: .the same terms and conditions as at first, and then it proceeded to declare that on the first of each month subsequent to November, 1883, Mr. Fish should pay Bingham two and a half per cent. per month on the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and three per cent. on such further sum or sums as he might furnish from time to time payable at the time the discounts are made. It was further stated that if Bingham deposited fifty thousand dollars more, that he should have a marine certificate of deposit bearing four per cent. interest, and that Mr. Fish should pay one and three-quarters per cent. per month, on the fifty thousand dollars payable on the first of each month. These monthly payments of interest-it was stated were to be made to N. H. Bingham, who was a son of the plaintiff Samuel Bingham, and so far as they have been paid they were paid to him. But this letter does not materially conflict with the evidence of the plaintiff Bingham, in the statement made by him denying the existence of any arrangement for the withdrawal of this particular fifty thousand dollars from the bank and its use as a loan, or advance, to Grant and Ward, to be used in the course of their business. It on the other hand assumes that the money will remain in the bank for which the certificate of deposit should be given. No right, or...
