Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Eighteenth Yearbook of the National Society for the Study of Education, Vol. 1 As early as 1904, the National Society, in its Third Yearbook, took up the discussion of problems connected with the preparation of teachers. This was continued the following year in Part I of the Fourth Yearbook (The Education and Training of Secondary Teachers), while closely related discussions have appeared in the Fifth Yearbook, Part II (The Certification of Teachers) and in the Fourteenth Yearbook, Part II (Methods for Measuring Teachers Efficiency). In 1914, Professor S. C. Parker, then Secretary of the Society, suggested to Professor H. L. Miller that he present to the Society an account of the methods developed by him at the University of Wisconsin for the preparation of secondary-school teachers. Later Professor Miller consented to act informally as chairman of a group of persons who should cooperate in the production of a Yearbook dealing with the, Organization and Administration of Practice Schools Generally. This undertaking expanded in various directions until it became...

Reviews

Very good e-book and valuable one. It can be written in basic words and phrases and not confusing. You will not really feel monotony at whenever you want of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning should you check with me).
