Lawrence O b; Branch, of North Carolina: On the Presidential Election, Delivered in the House of Representatives, July 24, 1856 The House being in the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, Mr. Branch said: Mr. Chairman: A great and vital contest has commenced, and is now raging before the people of this country. If we estimate its importance by the magnitude of the results to flow from it, such a one has not, in my opinion, occurred since the establishment of the Government. The portentous flag of Black Republicanism has been raised, and around it have rallied not only the fanatical and political Abolitionists who professedly aim at the total abolition of negro slavery everywhere, but also a body of men far more dangerous, who would reach the same result by rendering odious and proscribing the slaveholder, and limiting the influence and checking the growth of those States in which negro slavery exists. Under the folds of this flag are found those who would refuse equal privileges to...
