May it be our prayer that we may be willing to help Him in it and not to do anything to hinder Him in His work. A. auo Stevenson. EDUCATION IN CUBA. The teacher who proposes to conduct a Christian American school in Cuba has many difficult problems to solve. One of the chief questions is, how to secure regular attendance. Lack of constancy and habits of procrastination are inherent in the Cuban child. Both by temperament and from education, the people are lovers of pleasure and ease. At home the children are verymuch indulged in thcirwhims and fancies, and the most trivial excuses serve as a pretext to stay away. Attendance is very irregular as a result, and proper discipline is a hard matter to solve. Constitutionally, the Cuban child is not strong, and sickness, it is true, is often the cause of absence, but more often it is some outside attraction. Holidavsareconstantly breaking in on the routine of the school work, and are generally demoralizing to the school. By nature, the children are excitable, impetuous and noisy, but warm hearted and affectionate. To secure methodical, orderly andquiet work with such temperaments to deal with is, of course, a task which requires a great deal of hard work and patience on the part of the teacher. Instruction in the Elementary Public Schools, at least until within the last two years, has not been of a kind to...
