Excerpt: . . . fforts by the Putin administration to stifle independent news media and thereby retard the development of a genuine civil society in Russia today. I look forward to the testimony of our very distinguished witness, Secretary Powell, and as much as he is able to tell us about this trip we would appreciate. Let me conclude by saying, Mr. Secretary, I think, as they say in southern Delaware, you done good. I think the President did a fine job, and I think the most important thing from my perspective that came out of the trip was the fact that America remains engaged. The Europeans know it, and the President is engaged. I am confident that this is a very, very strong platform from which the President starts. The prepared statement of Senator Biden follows: Prepared Statement of Senator Joseph R. Biden, Jr. I am pleased to welcome Secretary of State Colin Powell to our committee today to report on the Presidents trip to Europe and to participate in a broader discussion of...
