By Charles Bazerman

Parlor Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .PERSPECTIVES ON WRITING - Series Editor, Susan H. McLeod - LITERATE ACTION, in its two volumes, makes an indispensable contribution to writing studies. Undertaken by one of the most learned and visionary scholars in the field, this work has a comprehensive and culminating quality to it, tracking major lines of insight into writing as a human practice and articulating the author's intellectual progress as a theorist and researcher across a career. - This volume-A RHETORIC OF LITERATE ACTION-may be one of the most radical articulations of the basics of writing ever offered. In the face of a doggedly conservative instructional context that still treats writing skill as a matter of following the rules, the author excavates the much deeper psychological and sociological processes from which writing emerges and with which it must synchronize. . . .Attending to such elements as time, stance, and action, along with genre, intertext, process, and other elements, the work offers a generative vocabulary handy as both an inventional and diagnostic tool for the sophisticated writer, as Bazerman calls the ideal audience...
