Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: . inspection district, as changed by the Board of Commissioners of Labor, at their meeting in July, 1909, but the fifth annual report of the ninth inspection district for the year ending June 30, 1910. Three counties--Clinton, Randolph, Washington--were taken from the ninth district and Wabash county added, so that the district now comprises the counties of Franklin, Gallatin, Jefferson, Perry, Saline, Wabash and White. Mr. W. S. Burris, former inspector of this district, resigned May, 1910, and I was appointed to succeed him by Governor Deneen on the 7th of the same month. Since my appointment there has been practically no work in the mines of this district, owing to the suspension of operators, beginning April 1st, and lasting to the end of the fiscal year. The fact that the mines were not in operation during the months of April, May and June, it was impossible, in many instances, to give the exact number of days of lost time to the men injured. Where the days lost could not be given, they have been indicated as unknown. This report contains information regarding the number of mines in operation, the number abandoned; the number of miners and other employes below and above ground; the number of mules and motors underground; the number of kegs of powder and pounds of permissible explosives used; the tons of coal of various grades produced; the fatal and non-fatal accidents that have occurred and other items pertaining to the industry. The...
