University of Nebraska Press, United States, 1985. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New edition. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Baugh has searched wide and deep to tell the life stories of Bowie, Travis, and Crockett, and to evaluate the role that each played at the Alamo. He is convincing, writing with considerable assurance, having made a careful examination of available source materials. The scholar and general reader will find this account of the heroic defense of the Alamo by a handful of Texans rewarding and enjoyable - Joseph Milton Nance, Texas AM University. On March 6, 1836, the Alamo fell after a thirteen-day siege by General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna and his Mexican army. The fall of the mission ranks as one of the most recognizable events in American history. Rendezvous at the Alamo presents capsule biographies of three prominent historical figures at the Alamo: Jim Bowie, William Barret Travis, and Davy Crockett. Using diaries, personal letters, eyewitness accounts, and a wealth of secondary source material, Virgil E. Baugh describes the varied lives of the three and shows how each ended up at the Alamo. In spite of their fame, all three men had been dogged by frustration and failure, but in death their immortality was insured.
